

Special Guest Speakers

Brett Rutledge became the youngest World Champion of Public Speaking in 1998 and is now a specialist in executive leadership communication. He has a degree in marketing, commercial law, management and labour relations. Brett is widely regarded as a Champion's Champion and the most skilled and dynamic communicator of his generation. His practical business knowledge and powerful delivery, is supported by mimicry and humour to both entertain and inform.

Mark Hunter became District 69's first World Champion of Public Speaking in 2009.

Formerly a Queensland School Principal with thirty years of teaching experience, Mark has now set up his own business as an Executive Coach. His coaching Master Classes are highly recommended.

Mark has a dynamic and exciting speaking style, always bringing forth fresh ideas and different ways of viewing the world. He is a Master Coach when it comes to presentation techniques.

Jock Elliott is the 2011 World Champion of Public Speaking. He is a trainer in presentation skills and a speech writer.

Mike Storkey of Airlie Beach has worked in marketing & management for 40 years, is the co-owner of Storkey's Team, a firm that offers customised training for businesses in leadership, management and communication. He is a facilitator, trainer, licensed real estate agent & auctioneer as well as the founding president of his local Chamber of Commerce. As a member of the Toastmasters International Board of Directors, Mike is a 'working ambassador' for the organisation. Anything you need to know about Toastmasters International . . . ask Mike!

Sue Haynes has been a Toastmaster since 1996. As District 70 Governor (NSW) she helped that district achieve Distinguished District status in 2007/8. She also led the district's education and training team to record success as LGET in 2006/7. A member of Leaders by Design in District 69, this is the second year Sue has been training and assisting the District Leaders.

Since 2000 Sue has been the Marketing & Product Manager for Bronson & Jacobs, a division of Orica Aust. and credits Toastmasters for allowing her to move from the confines of a chemical lab to travelling the World as a marketing manager.
